

WHERE IS GLOBAL FINANCE HEADING? ROLE AND NEW RESPONSIBILITIES OF EMERGING ECONOMIES IN THE GLOBAL MONETARY SYSTEM

AGENDA

Istanbul, October 1st - 2nd 2009

VENUE: Çirağan Palace Kempinski Hotel

Çırağan Caddesi No: 32 Beşiktaş - 34349 İSTANBUL

Thursday, October 1, 2009 Venue: Feriye Restaurant

20:00 Welcome Dinner at Feriye Restaurant (Çırağan Cad. No: 40 Ortaköy - 34347 İSTANBUL)

Friday, October 2, 2009 Venue: Ciragan Palace Kempinski, Mabeyn Room

8:00-8:30 Welcome Coffee and Registration

8:30-9:00 Welcoming Remarks

Marc Uzan, Executive Director, Reinventing Bretton Woods Committee Durmus Yilmaz, Governor, Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey

Ali Babacan, State Minister, Republic of Turkey

9:00-10:00 SESSION I – Where is Global Finance heading: a Return to Normalcy? Chair: Erdem Basci, Deputy Governor, Central Bank of Turkey Nouriel Roubini, Professor of Economics, New York University Lorenzo Bini-Smaghi, Member of the Board, European Central Bank Haruhiko Kuroda, President, Asian Development Bank Guillermo Ortiz, Governor, Bank of Mexico

10:00-10:15 Coffee Break

10:15-11:15 SESSION II – Internationalisation of Currencies : Prospects and Challenges

Chair: Jean Lemierre, Adviser to the Chairman, BNP Paribas

- Mark Sobel, Acting Assistant Secretary for International Affairs, US Treasury
- Richard Cooper, Professor of Economics, Harvard University
- Robert McCauley, Bank for International Settlements
- David Daokui Li, Professor of Economics, Tsinghua University

11:15-12:30 SESSION III – Emerging Economies in the International Monetary System

Chair: Yavuz Canevi, Chairman TEB

- Muhammad Al-Jasser, Governor, Saudi Arabian Monetary Agency
- Martin Redrado, Governor, Central Bank of Argentina
- Tiehang Niu, Senior Fellow, China Center for International Economic Exchanges
- Jerome Booth, Head of Research, Ashmore Investment
- Tim Adams, Managing Director, The Lindsey Group

12:30-13:45 Lunch: Tuğra Restaurant

14:00-15:00 Key Note Speech

Dominique Strauss-Kahn, Managing Director, International Monetary Fund